

Contents

Abbreviations	7
Antonella Alimento, Introduction	9
 Part I
Politics, the “intervention practices” and neutrality
Manuel Herrero Sánchez, Republican diplomacy and the power balance in Europe	23
Marcella Aglietti, The consular institution between war and commerce, state and nation: Comparative examples in eighteenth-century Europe	41
Francisco Javier Zamora Rodríguez, War, trade, products and consumption patterns: The Ginori and their information networks	55
Daniele Edigati, The Tuscan Edict of 1748 and ancien régime maritime legislation	68
Franco Angiolini, From the neutrality of the port to the neutrality of the state: Projects, debates and laws in Habsburg-Lorraine Tuscany	82
Mario Montorzi, Legislation and trade: Reflections from the margins	101
Antonella Alimento, Commercial treaties and the harmonisation of national interests: The Anglo-French case (1667-1713)	107

Koen Stapelbroek, The emergence of Dutch neutrality: Trade, treaty politics and the peace of the Republic	129
Andrea Addobbati, The capture of the Thetis: A cause célèbre at the Madrid Council of War (1780-1788)	146
Biagio Salvemini, The “intervention practices” of the late ancien régime: Notes on the institutional and mercantile spheres of eighteenth-century Europe	160
 Part II
Neutrality and the reception of theoretical models
Guillaume Calafat, Ottoman North Africa and ius publicum europaeum: The case of the treaties of peace and trade (1600-1750)	171
Emanuele Salerno, Stare pactis and neutrality. Grotius and Pufendorf in the political thought of the early eighteenth century Grand Duchy of Tuscany	188
Eric Schnakenbourg, From a right of war to a right of peace: Martin Hübner’s contribution to the reflection on neutrality in the eighteenth century	203
Antonio Trampus, The circulation of Vattel’s Droit des gens in Italy: the doctrinal and practical model of government	217
Enrico Spagnesi, The trade of “neutral nations” as viewed by the publicist Lampredi	233
Niccolò Guasti, Natural law and the birth of political economy in the eighteenth century	247
About the authors	253
Index	255